Smell L.A.'s Street Perfume

As part of Mar Vista's Great Streets Project, Vision Zero has recently installed the first perfume bus stop thanks to our Vision Zero Creative Catalyst Artist in-Residence, Alan Nakagawa. The Creative Catalyst Artist in Residence Program was created to challenge artists to work with city departments on innovative ways to connect Angelenos with the city's vision for a safer, more sustainable, and dynamic Los Angeles. Each month, a new scent is placed into the sensory gadget with a different name. The month of July's scent is "Community Development". Stop and smell for yourself at the Centinela and Venice bus stop.

Heads up! Parkway Violation Enforcement

As of Monday, August 14, 2017, LADOT and LAPD will begin to enforce L.A.M.C.8053 Parkway Violation. Since there has been no enforcement for several years, officers have been educating the community by placing Warning Cards on vehicles. More updates to come.

Come on In! Open Houses

Join the community as LADOT hosts open houses to discuss updates on the Venice Boulevard and Playa Del Rey projects.

LADOT Video: Artist Documentary Promo - LA Dot Zine

Watch this short documentary on the creative catalyst himself, Alan Nakagawa, explaining the LA Dot Zine 2.0. The LA Dot Zine 1.0 was successfully printed and delivered in January of this year. The newest rendition has more of a "retro" look to it, as Alan explains. This is just one of many creative ideas he has shared and brought to the City of Los Angeles during last year's tenure with LADOT. Watch the video here.
